Once there were some animals living
on a farm. (I know what you're thinking.
Yes, this farm had a bear.)

Not much ever happened on this farm, and out of general boredom and restlessness...

the bear growled...

the horse neighed... the pig oinked... the chicken clucked...

Baaaaa!

"Ummmm, Duck?" said the bear.
"Yes bear?" answered the duck.

"Never mind."

And the day wore on.

Soon it was time for lunch.

Have I mentioned that not much ever happened on this farm? Okay, then you'll understand when I say that lunch was kinda the highlight of the day.

In what could pass for excitement...

Baaaaa!

and the story continues for 16 more pages until..

“We love you, Duck!”

“Ummm, Duck?” said the animals.

“Yes guys?” answered the duck.
